2. [ ] LIAISON Met with Hal Ford, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and discussed his inquiry regarding access to the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence classified report on the A Team-B Team episode for Richard Pipes and Paul Nitze, B Team members. Ford informed me that retired DIA Director Danny Graham had also asked for access. I told Ford that whether to show the report to the B Team members was basically a Committee decision, and that the Director did not want to be directly involved. However, the feeling at the Agency was one of uneasiness about the prospect of this review. I reminded Ford however that Pipes did not have clearances any longer and that I supposed these would have to be reinstituted.

7. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from Robert Blaemire, on the staff of Senator Birch Bayh (D., Ind.). Blaemire is handling a request from the Anderson, Indiana Rotary Club for a speaker on intelligence. A similar request was received from the same organization last year, and I told Senator Bayh's office at that time that we could not provide a speaker for this sort of program away from Washington. Blaemire asked me if I knew whether any other intelligence agencies had speaker programs. I told him I did not know of any others but that I would reaffirm CIA's policy. I also suggested he might ask Tom Connaughton, former Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staffer now on Senator Bayh's personal staff, if he would be interested in making the presentation.
